HOW TO APPLY

Stage – I CAT / GMAT

Candidates have to apply on the basis of CAT 2009 or GMAT (Score of 31 December 2007 or later). GMAT score of 600+ can also be considered in lieu of CAT.

Stage – II MICA Admissions Test (MICAT)

With reference to delay in CAT result, MICA invites all candidates applying to MICA through CAT 2009 to take MICAT for Admissions to PGDM (C) 2010-2012.

MICAT will be Computer Based Testing (CBT) at Bhopal and Lucknow centers only.

At both the centers the capacity is 150 candidates and will be decided on first come first serve basis.

MICAT is designed to assess analytical and divergent thinking, written communication skills and familiarity with the Indian ethos.

Note: The candidates who have already filled in and submitted their application forms in physical mode are advised to write to admissions@micamail.in stating their application form number mentioning their choice of center for MICAT. Those who have filled in the application form online are requested to revisit the form and tick their choice of centre. MICA will charge a fee of Rs.500/- for MICAT. Information about payment for the same will be sent to all applicants later.

Stage – III Group Exercise (GE) and Personal Interview (PI)

Candidates shortlisted on the basis of MICAT will be invited for Group Exercise and Personal Interview later in March / April 2010.
